Sunday Reflection

On the Baptism of the Lord, we celebrate Jesus' baptism by John in the Jordan River. Although Jesus was sinless, he chose to join those repenting, showing his closeness to humanity and his willingness to stand with us. His baptism was a humble act, a way of sharing in our journey and connecting deeply with each of us. Through this event, we see Jesus' love and commitment to humanity.

This event also marked the start of Jesus' mission. When he was baptized, the heavens opened, and the Holy Spirit descended on him like a dove, confirming his role. A voice from heaven proclaimed, "You are my beloved Son; with you, I am well pleased." Jesus' baptism shows that he was chosen and equipped for his mission to share God's message of love and healing.

At the baptism, we catch a glimpse of the Trinity. The Father speaks from heaven, the Son receives baptism, and the Holy Spirit descends like a dove. This moment reveals God's loving unity and reminds us of the love shared between the Father, Son, and Spirit. We are invited into this relationship and encouraged to share God's love with the world.

Let us reaffirm often our commitment to be God's children who are called to love divinely. Live courageously and faithfully to the original stirring of your heart to serve God, and you will be happy.
