Parish News

THANK YOU: The flowers placed on the altar for First Communion, May Crowning and Mother's Day were compliments of the OLOH women's club. Big thanks!

HELP!: More voices are needed in the choir. Your voice can help proclaim the liturgy. Contact any choir member or Mary Aguzzi at maguzzio1@ftc-i.net or call 803-478-6636. On Sunday you can come to the choir room at 8:30 am.

WOMEN'S CLUB: "Women's club will continue to collect products for the United ministry but for May we are asking for boxes of macaroni and cheese. This is only a suggestion. Any help is appreciated. Thank you to all who have contributed for your kindness and willingness to serve.

SECOND COLLECTION: This weekend, May 7, the Diocesan Collection will help to support Catholic Charities and Catholic Communication Campaign.

FUNERAL: On Friday, May 19, we will have the funeral for longtime parishioner, JEANINE MCBRIDE, at Our Lady of Hope. Services will begin at 11:30 am and immediately following family and friends will proceed to the Florence National Cemetery. Upon their return there will be a reception at Wyboo Community Center at 3:30 pm.

SUNDAY REFLECTION

Today's readings remind us that to love Jesus is to keep His word and to think, feel and act in accordance with His word. Saint Francis de Sales stresses that we learn to keep His word and live Jesus through a life of prayer and virtue.

Prayer places our mind in the brilliance of God's light and exposes our will to the warmth of God's love. Prayer is a stream of holy water that makes the plants of our good desires grow green and flourish. Each day set aside some time to meditate. If possible, meditate early in the morning, when your mind is less distracted and fresher after a night's rest. To live Jesus, ask God to help you to pray from your heart.

When you meditate on Jesus' life, you will learn His ways and form your actions after the pattern of His life. Gradually accustom yourself to pass with ease and tranquility from prayer to your various duties even though your duties appear far different from the affections you received in prayer. The lawyer must be able to pass from prayer to pleading cases, the merchant to commerce and the parent to the care of children. Out of our meditation experience must flow our daily actions, which involve a life of virtue.

Each person must practice in a special manner the virtues needed for the kind of life he or she is called to. In practicing the virtues, we should prefer the one most conformable to our duties rather than the one most agreeable to our taste. As a rule, comets seem bigger than stars because comets are closer to us. Hence, comets seem bigger to us. Similarly, we esteem certain virtues merely because they appear greater to us. Yet, we must choose the virtues needed to counteract our habitual failings and weaknesses so as to advance in holy love. For instance, if assaulted by anger practice gentleness, no matter how small this virtuous act may seem. True virtue has no limits. If we act out of reverence for God and in good faith, God will raise us up to heights that are truly great so that we may live Jesus even when we suffer for doing what is good.

Of course, the Good News in today's Gospel is that we are not on our own – we are not left to our own devices – in our attempts to Live + Jesus. We have Christ's promise of help: the guidance and the companionship of the Holy Spirit!

HAPPY Mother's Day
