Sunday Reflection

In today's parable of the wedding banquet, Jesus is giving us insight into history and to the future. The king (God) is holding a wedding feast for his son (Jesus). The servants (prophets and ministers of God) go out and invite guests. But these guests mistreat the servants. So next the king sends out his servants to invite everyone, good or bad, to the feast. This is an indication that we are all invited, regardless of our "worthiness". But then something disturbing happens. One of the guests is under dressed for the feast. He is thrown out of the banquet.

This can seem unfair, especially since this guest was invited off of the street. He probably wasn't expecting to go to a wedding. But he was missing something. He was caught unprepared.

Some scholars guess that this man may have been one of the original guests. He finally responded to the invitation, but not in a manner with showed respect to the king or his son. He didn't make any effort to get ready. He only did the bare minimum of showing up.

Jesus' message in the parable cautions against exclusive beliefs about the kingdom of heaven. The parable also teaches about humility. Those who assume that they are the invited guests may find that they have refused the invitation, and so others are invited in their place. To accept the invitation is also to accept its obligations. God wants our full conversion in complete acceptance of his mercy.

So one way to read this is to understand that Jesus is inviting us to be ready when the invitation comes and then to respond wholeheartedly.
