You are invited, welcomed, accepted and respected at St. Mary- Our Lady of Hope.

Our parish extends sincere sympathy to Sonya Del Rio on the death of her husband, Pedro, and also to Levi Fleming on the death of his wife, Gloria. Please keep them and their families in your prayers. May God rest their souls!

We wish to thank Deacon Charles Walsh for his $250 donation to our Building Expansion Fund. This was a farewell gift to him from our Women's Club.

September 30 and October 1—Father Antony will be in Rock Hill at St. Anne's Church for a Mission Appeal for his Diocese in Sivagangai. We are fortunate to have Father Ronie Lorcha from St. Ann in Sumter to celebrate the Masses at all our churches.

October 14th & 15th—Our parish will have a special collection for Father Antony's Diocese in Sivagangai in India. The money collected will be used to help the orphans and students who study there.

SAVE the DATE for Our PARISH PICNIC! — Our annual Parish Picnic has been scheduled for Sunday, October 15th, at J.C. Britton Park. There is a poster in the back of the church with more information. Please see the sign up sheets for volunteers as well as people attending the picnic. We need to know total per family-how many adults and how many children. There is also a spot to write in if you plan to bring a side dish or a dessert. We always welcome and appreciate your help and participation in Our Parish Picnic!

Sunday Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus talks to us about the Kingdom of heaven, where God's generous mercy and goodness far exceeds our concept of justice. St. Francis de Sales notes:

When there is absolutely no human good to hope for, it is precisely then that God's awe-inspiring mercy shines forth and surpasses God's justice. God's ways are not our ways. God would sooner work miracles than leave us without help. For this reason, our Savior came to redeem us and deliver us from the tyranny of sin. The heart of our Savior is wholly filled with mercy and kindness for the human family.

God's providence is wiser than what we are. We imagine we would feel better if we were on another ship. That may be, but only if we change ourselves! There is a real temptation to become dissatisfied and depressed about the world we have to live in. Truly we must not lose heart. God will never abandon us. It is we who abandon God.

If you are troubled, you never want to leave God. An ounce of virtue practiced in adversity is worth more than a thousand pounds exercised in prosperity. We may be weak, but our weakness is not nearly as great as God's mercy toward those who desire to love God, and place all their hope in God. The problem is that all the nooks and corners of our hearts are cluttered with thousands of desires that prevent our Savior from giving us the gifts that He desires to shower on us.

We ought to be like the mariner who, in steering his vessel, always keeps his eye on the needle of the compass. We must keep our eyes open to correct our desires and have only one, that of pleasing God. Let our Lord reign in our hearts, as He desires. Then let us remain at peace, without hurry or fear in our hearts, and go on our little way. So long as we mean well and hold to our desire to love God, we are on the right track.

(Adapted from the writings of St. Francis de Sales).
